Riverside is still a young band, though rich in experience. We are a group of people who share a common passion and thoroughly enjoy what we do. We strive to improve and are happy to pass on to others what we have learned. The band's achievements have been many, and though none has come easily, all have been worth it. Thus, Riverside always looks forwards, since we leave behind no regrets. We have been fortunate to make many friends along the way and hope you will become one of them (if you are not so already). So enter, my friend, and join the Riverside community. Slainte Pipe Major Germán Villar
