The Indiana Caledonia Pipe Band was formed in 2004 and is located in the Indianapolis area. The founders of the band wanted to provide an opportunity for pipers and drummers in the greater Indianapolis area to prepare for and participate in Pipe Band Competitions across the Mid-West and East Coast regions. The band is under the direction of qualified piping and drumming instructors who have extensive competition experience. The band also encourages its members to compete as soloists as this is the best way to improve individual skills. Also important is the environment of the band. The leaders provide a family friendly environment for the participants as we believe the future of the band lies in the hands of our young players. The band is looking for both experienced and beginner players for either piping or drumming. For beginners, the ideal ages to begin would be in the 9 to 13 year old range. Each band member currently wears their own kilt using their clan or family tartan. If they don't have a family tartan, they may select one they like. The band is available for performances. Solo pipers or drummers are also available (see contact number below). Please call us for more information
